1. PROGRAMMES OF EVENTS

28 September to 13 October 2013
HIGHLAND ARCHAEOLOGY FESTIVAL Plans are now underway for the 20th Highland Archaeology Festival – a two-week feast of walks, talks and other special events co-ordinated by the Highland Council’s Historic Environment Team with the aim of enabling local people and visitors to explore and enjoy the rich heritage of Highland. We are looking forward to presenting a diverse programme of events, from Caithness to Lochaber and beyond, thanks to our superb network of local event organisers without whose continuing dedication and support the festival would not be possible. This year our conference will be on 12th and 13th October in the Highland Council Chamber, Glenurquhart Road, Inverness, visit the website at http://www.highland.gov.uk/yourenvironment/conservation/archaeology/highlandarchaeologyfestival.htm for further details and if you would like to be added to our mailing list to receive a copy of the Festival programme (which will include conference details and conference booking form) when it is available, please email us at archaeology@highland.gov.uk.
Highland Archaeology Festival provides an excellent opportunity to present the results of recent field projects and research, raise awareness of local archaeology, history and heritage and encourage people to discover the historic environment of Highland.
